

Dear All

Following the recent success of the British pastry team at the Coupe du Monde de la Patisserie in Lyon, preparations are now in place for 2013.

Our aim is to develop and promote the Pastry chef role within Great Britain and to showcase the skills and creativity of this role.

We are now looking for the best Pastry Chefs in the country to represent the UK at the next Coupe du Monde in January 2013. To do so, the UK Team will have to qualify in Paris at the 'Open des Desserts', in March 2012.

Your opportunity to represent Great Britain

We would like to invite you to send us your application form before the 10th of June 2011 and include:

- Your CV (all applicants must have a minimum of 5 years experience)
- A few words on what motivates you to compete with the British team
- Which discipline you would like to demonstrate your skills i.e. pulled sugar, artistic chocolate or ice carving. You must send at least x3 photographs demonstrating the best of your abilities.

After the application and review process, we will ask each successful candidate to participate in the UK team selection, which takes place in September 2011 (date and venue to be confirmed). You will be asked to prepare and display your strongest skills on the day to a panel of Professional Pastry Chefs. To give you an idea of what was achieved in the last Coupe du Monde by different countries, please visit: www.cmpatisserie.com.

We strongly believe that taking part in this selection process will open up further opportunities for yourself and the Pastry industry to progress.

We are looking forward to our next exciting challenge and appreciate the support from everyone within the food industry to help promote our message.

Warm Regards

Benoit Blin
